Things to Think About....
(In New Book)

Have you wondered why God allows you to make wrong choices that are always going to be followed by wrong (and sometimes painful) consequences? Wrong consequences can be an important part of your spiritual learning process—consequences are one of God's most effective teaching tools!

There is an expiration date on blaming your parents for the condition of your life today. There is also an expiration date on blaming others for your life's disappointments today. The moment you are old enough to "take the driver's wheel of your life" yourself, you become responsible for where you are going and when you will arrive there.

E-MAIL QUESTION: How do I know if my binding and loosing prayers are really changing my stronghold thinking?

(AUTHOR: This is a question frequently asked of me!) As your stronghold thinking recedes (reread Glossary if necessary) and as you pray the binding and loosing prayers....Your unsundered soul desperately wants you to believe it has to be someone else's fault that you are not successful, happy, smart, thin, rich, handsome, or beautiful. Any one of these negative beliefs can cause....

If you are sad, timid, disappointed, afraid, worried, filled with toxic thoughts, frustrated, and angry—do you know why? (DRUM ROLL, PLEASE!) You are identifying with....

"I tell you the truth, anyone who has faith in Me will do what I have been doing. He will do even greater things than these, because I am going to the Father. And I will do whatever you ask in My name, so that the Son may bring glory to the Father. You may ask Me for anything in My name, and I will do it" (John 14:11-14, NIV).

We are to do even greater things than Jesus did—we are to finish the works He left for us when He returned to the Father. Wow! How are we to do that? Jesus said (in this passage) that we could ask Him for anything in His Name and then He tells us WHY He said that—that He was saying....

Most fiery family dynamics begin over an upset of the perceived “balance of power” among the hurting souls of a family. Then a second dynamic begins to reveal itself. A different focus enters and everyone finds himself or herself in....

Scripture says: We love Him because He first loved us. If someone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, how can he love God whom he has not seen? And this commandment we have from Him: that he who loves God MUST love his brother also (I John 4:19-21, NKJV).

NOTE: Thayer’s Greek Lexicon NT #3404, tells us that the word hate (as used here) means to love less, to postpone love or esteem, or to slight.

Have you ever felt any of those feelings for any of your relatives? Hmmm?

God never gives or withholds His love based on your ability to meet His expectations. If you mess up, He still loves you just as much as He always has. His love and His corrections have no bearing upon or correlation to each other. His love exists around you like the water of the sea surrounds the dolphin and the sky surrounds the eagle. If a dolphin makes a mistake, it does not expect the sea to withdraw; an eagle does not expect the sky to disappear because it flew the wrong way.

We are to do even greater things than Jesus did—we are to finish the works He left for us when He returned to the Father. Wow! Jesus also said (in John 14:14) that we could ask Him for anything in His Name. Then He says: “I will do whatever you ask in My name; [WHY DOES HE SAY

THAT?] so that the Son (Jesus) may bring glory to the Father!”

This is where so many people get confused. They believe John 14:11-14 means that they can ask Jesus (in His Name) for anything they want and He will do it or give it to them because that is what the Word says. IT IS NOT SAYING THAT AT ALL...Jesus meant you could ask Him for.....

EMAIL TO AUTHOR-QUESTION: I have been praying the binding and loosing prayers. I have to say, I am a little disappointed. Why have I not seen any results?

AUTHOR: Because everyone has different....

QUESTION: As I study and use your book, I have experienced much new freedom, but I have also experienced sadness, nightmares, and I sometimes seem to have trouble breathing (which is rare for me). What do you think is going on with me?

ANSWER: This is evidence that your unsundered soul has recognized the powerful force of the Keys of the Kingdom prayers that are now threatening its position in your life. It has realized that its hidden deceptions are not as safely “hidden” as before, and it is responding the only way it knows how. This is bad for it, but good for you!

QUESTION: Can I just record myself reading the binding and loosing prayers onto a tape recorder and then listen to them as they play back? Would that be okay?

AUTHOR: The best way for you to activate the power of your Keys of the Kingdom Prayers and put pressure on your unsundered soul and the enemy is for you to vocalize (OUT LOUD) your agreement with the prayers. You can tape yourself using the binding and loosing principles if you want to, but just listening to a tape of the prayers or just reading and thinking about the prayers is a serious waste of the power potential of a spoken agreement by your body, your will, and your soul.

Know that Satan cannot read your mind to know if you are praying seriously or not if you remain silent. He can only judge what you are thinking by what he hears you pray out loud and what he observes of your reactions to his works against you.

Both Satan and your unsundered soul need to hear you declaring the binding and loosing prayers out loud to really be sure you are serious about using the Keys of the Kingdom prayers to overcome their tricks.

You will be the most successful when you pray the binding and loosing prayers aloud, even if you have to whisper them into a brief case, a jacket, or a filing cabinet drawer. Do not be startled by the reactions of your unsundered soul when you do this....

WHY DO I NEED TO FORGIVE MYSELF?

Learning from your past mistakes and transgressions is good, but dwelling on them has no redeeming value of any sort! Neither does urgently striving to mentally block out the bad memories of your past mistakes and transgressions. No blocking out of unpleasant memories is ever permanent when your unsundered soul is still in charge because it will know exactly where to find them and bring them back up.

Learning to forgive yourself is not just learning to live with your past! It is learning from the experiences of your past and then taking what you have learned and using it to create a better you for the future!

When God forgives you, the Word states that He remembers your sins no more (Jeremiah 31:34). You should never focus....

If God has forgiven you, what is holding you back from extending the same degree of forgiveness to yourself? You need to realize that if you have trouble believing that the fullness of His forgiveness and acceptance has been given to you, it is usually because you are still judging yourself by your own standards and conscience!

How Do I Forgive Myself?

If you do not forgive yourself, you will often try to atone for whatever you have done in an attempt to cleanse your guilty conscience. When you do so, you will usually undermine and sabotage much of the rest of your life. You will always feel unworthy to receive forgiveness or blessings from God.

I know I keep telling you this, but just in case you do not really get it yet—STOP judging yourself according to your own standards and conscience.

Own your sin and repent, accept God's forgiving grace for it—then consider it cancelled. STOP DEFINING YOURSELF by your worst moments (or your best moments, either). You are a child of God who is clothed with the righteousness of Christ

If you are hiding behind the excuse that you do not want to just give "lip service" to the words of "I forgive you," please consider praying this small prayer:

Lord, I really do not want to forgive this person. I am sorry because I know that this is not what You want, but I am being honest. I do not even know what to ask regarding how I feel. Please just help me somehow—I want to obey You even if I do not agree with or understand Your commands sometimes. Help me! In Jesus' Name, Amen.

We can usually influence our bodies—all the way down to the cellular level—by thinking positive, godly thoughts and focusing on positive emotions. I know I also keep repeating this, one way or another, but it is extremely important that you receive it and believe it,

The “power of positive thinking” is not just an oft-quoted old saying—it is a scientific fact, as well as a spiritual fact from the Word! Proverbs 23:7 (AMP) tell us: “For as he thinks in his heart, so is he.” (Author’s Note: In the Bible, the scriptural use of the word “heart” often denotes “the soul—the mind.”)

Constantly worrying about the future, what might happen, or what someone might say about you or do to you strongly affects you mentally, physically, and spiritually. Worrying can change your brain’s natural operation, pushing it in a negative direction that throws your mind and your whole body into distress. You can frequently misinterpret the facts of your life when you see them through the distortion of worry, fear, and stress.

AGAIN, REMEMBER: God does not give or withhold His love based on your ability to meet His expectations. If you mess up, He still loves you just as much as He always has. His love exists around you like the water of the sea surrounds the dolphin and the sky surrounds the eagle. If a dolphin makes a mistake, it does not expect the sea to withdraw; an eagle does not expect the sky to disappear because it flew the wrong way. They just know that it will always be there.

Unforgiveness is classified in many of today’s medical books as a “disease” that makes people ultra sick and keeps them that way. It is generally believed that over 60 percent of all cancer patients have unforgiveness issues; more than half of those cancers are severe.

Forgiveness’s anger and hatred create a state of chronic bitterness, anxiety, and distress that produce heavy doses of adrenaline and cortisol that is then dumped into the body. As I said elsewhere in this book, excessive cortisol releases will partially shut down or even impair your entire immune system. This interferes with T-cell production and function, weakening and reducing our natural physical “fighter” cells.

The state of unforgiveness is a deadly state!

VERY IMPORTANT DISCLAIMER: I am not suggesting that you stop taking any medication or treatment that a doctor has prescribed for you. I am encouraging you to pray the binding and loosing prayers and bring God into the healing equation. Let Him take it from there!

Is Your Family Full of CEO Wannabes?

A CEO-Wannabe is someone who needs (who even craves) to be totally in charge. I come from a family where everyone was convinced they were our Family CEO (Chief Executive Officer, the Big Cheese, the Pack Leader, etc.).

We experienced some very interesting family dynamics—dynamics being continuous interacting forces within a group. That was us—heavy on the force and the continuous interacting—otherwise known as our Family Board Meetings where the interactions and reactions were extremely dynamic (me included).

This was before I learned about God’s ability to temper these Family Board Meetings and each CEO-Wannabe’s behavior when just ONE member cooperated with His way. One God-oriented family member can have a very powerful effect on an entire family full of CEO-Wannabes!

Who Just Said That?

Was it God? Was it Satan? Was it a soulish belief of another person? Was it your own unsundered soul? Being confused about whose voice you are hearing in your mind is caused by a smoke screen put up by your unsundered soul. The enemy contributes to that smoke screen in any way he can.

God has no desire to make you work your way through a hazy maze to follow His GPS directions. That does not mean that you will not ever flail around now and then as you learn how to work with Him. Flailing around may actually be part of your learning experience.

Keep binding your mind, will, and emotions to God's will, the mind of Christ, and the healing balance and comfort of the Holy Ghost. Keep feeding your born-again spirit and your unsundered soul with the Word of God (force-feed your unsundered soul if necessary).

IMPORTANT POINT #1: God's truth, whether it is written in the Word or it is spoken to you, it will always be consistent!

GOD will not tell you one thing in the Bible and then tell you something different in an "impression" you or someone else "feels." He will never contradict or fudge on what He has said in His Word. One very important part of hearing God is understanding that it can take time to learn to discern God's voice—and it definitely takes a humble heart.

IMPORTANT POINT #2: GOD will never ask you to do something Jesus Christ would not do!

You need to immerse yourself in the Bible to learn which actions will meet God's standards and Jesus' commands. "Do not let this Book of the Law depart from your mouth: meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do everything that is written in it" (Joshua 1:8).

This is not a command to scare you if you don't obey it—it is encouragement that all you need to read and do to have God's best is in the Word where it is just waiting for you.

EXCERPT FROM NEW BOOK!

When you can start changing your thinking, you begin changing the chemistry of your mind and body and their processes. Have you allowed something to freeze your thoughts in one place by being focused on one trauma?

Perhaps you need to take a "patience walk" with God. God will show you exactly what to do and when to do it if you wait patiently upon His voice. It can take a certain amount of time to get all your ducks in a row (the details lined up)!

This divine form of communication works especially well when your unsundered soul's stronghold thinking is being shattered and torn down on a regular basis. An unsundered soul's attitude of "justified impatience" (such as: God, I have waited as long as I can!) has caused many in the body of Christ to jump into situations that abound with sticky tentacles and prickly ropes of bondage.

How do you learn patience? Sometimes you have to go through the "school of consequences" to learn patience. When you loose wrong attitudes of your unsundered soul and bind yourself to God's timing and wait, however, it's amazing how much stress this will remove from your time frames and personal deadlines. Patience grows slowly, but patience practiced grows.

There are times when we ask God to speak to us and we may hear: "Why do you want Me to answer that? You didn't do the last thing I told you to do." Ooops! Obedience is our way of keeping a dialogue with God going forward. If you miss doing what God has already told you in the little things, you risk missing out on "taking a crack" at some of the bigger things; plus you can mess up your spiritual hearing!

Another good passage to frequently recite out loud is: Philippian 4:6-7: "Don't worry about anything;

instead, pray about everything; tell God your needs, and don't forget to thank Him for his answers. If you do this, you will experience God's peace, which is far more wonderful than the human mind can understand. His peace will keep your thoughts and your hearts quiet and at rest as you trust in Christ Jesus" (TLB).

BE SURE YOU UNDERSTAND THIS
Probabilities have no power over you unless YOU deliberately, personally, intellectually, or physically cause the probability to become an actuality.

So don't!

Here are good examples of God's anti-worry verses of the Word for you to declare out loud every day:

Proverbs 12:25...Anxiety in the heart of man causes depression, But a good word makes it glad (NKJV).

Proverbs 24:19-20 Don't let evil people worry you; don't be envious of them. A wicked person has no future—nothing to look forward to...BUT YOU DO (GNT)!

Philippian 4:6-7...Don't worry about anything; instead, pray about everything; tell God your needs, and thank Him for his answers. If you do this, you will experience God's peace, which is far more wonderful than the human mind can understand. His peace will keep your thoughts and your heart quiet and at rest as you trust in Christ Jesus (TLB).

Your positive or negative thoughts plus the emotions they invoke will always affect what you think, say, and do. If the frame of mind that your thoughts activate is negative, then your thoughts and emotional responses and behaviors will be negative and stressful. If your frame of mind is positive, then your thoughts and emotional responses will be positive and peaceful; your actions and behaviors will follow suit.

What is one surefire, almost immediate way to change your frame of mind? READ GOD'S WORD OUT LOUD! LISTEN TO YOURSELF AND THINK ABOUT EVERY WORD YOU ARE READING! THEN....

loose your unsundered soul's attitudes of fear and anxiety by praying the Keys of the Kingdom prayer principles, further meditating about repeating God's command that you should not worry. Research has shown that there are chemicals and electrical impulses released in your brain that aid clear thinking and thought building when you do this. Isn't that great?

In fact, that is so great—read it again!

The original Greek translation of worry means to be torn apart; the phrase doubtful mind in Luke 12:29 (KJV) translates to: being held in suspense. The English word worry comes from an old Anglo-Saxon (Germanic) word that means to strangle.

So, worry strangles your mind's thought processes, either tearing them apart or ensnaring them and holding them in suspense. Pretty serious stuff, isn't it?

What is really interesting is that when you read the Word specifically looking for your exact situation, you may not find it. However, the Word of God offers many, many answers, solutions, and good ideas where you never thought you would find your answer—but you will!

Laughter, exercise, worship, singing, and creative activity will all increase the flow of endorphins within your body to get your juices going. Endorphins will elevate your mood, short circuit pain circuits to your brain and the fogginess of your brain. An increase of endorphins even help repair your immune system, and endorphins also have antidepressant qualities! Such a deal!

Remember—endorphins are naturally released by exercising, laughter, dancing, running, singing, prayer, and marital relations. All of these activities elevate natural endorphin levels. Endorphins are incredible little hormones, acting as pain-killers by disrupting your body's pain pathway back to the brain, performing as antidepressants, quickening your thinking, and strengthening your immune system.

Your ability to cope with stress relates to the endorphin levels in your body. When you are under prolonged stress, your immune system's efficiency is reduced dramatically.

Jumpstarting your endorphins will raise your spirits and "pump up" your immune system. I have experienced this, myself!

The past mistakes of men and women do not cancel God's plans for their futures. He knows exactly what should be done to re-align them with His ultimate goal for their destiny. Think of the Apostle Paul (also known as Saul of Tarsus) for a moment. Saul of Tarsus hated Christians and he made it his goal to capture and bring Christians to public trial and execution.

Saul was present when the first Christian martyr (Stephen) was killed by an angry mob who dragged him out of the city and stoned him. Saul was there, giving approval to Stephen's death (Acts 7:57 to 8:1, NKJV).

After Stephen was killed, Saul began to destroy the Church. He went door to door in Jerusalem finding people who believed that Jesus was the Messiah and had them dragged off to prison (Acts 8:3). After putting them in prison, Saul worked to learn further about their Christian friends in Damascus (Acts 22:4-5 NKJV).

Who knows what kind of force Saul brought to bear on these Christians or their friends?

But something happened to Saul as he was traveling to Damascus in search of those Christians.

God's plans appeared to him in an unexpected way: Saul (Paul) later said: "About noon as I came near Damascus, suddenly a bright light from heaven flashed around me. I fell to the ground and heard a voice say to me, 'Saul! Saul! Why do you persecute me?'"

"Who are you, Lord?" Saul asked.

"I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you are persecuting," the voice replied. Saul's companions saw the light, but they did not understand the voice of Him who was speaking to Saul. "What shall I do, Lord?" Saul asked.

"Get up," the Lord said, "and go into Damascus. There you will be told all that you have been assigned to do." Saul's companions led him by the hand into Damascus, because the brilliance of the light had blinded him." (Acts 22:6-11, NKJV).

"Then a certain Ananias, a devout man according to the law, having a good testimony with all the Jews who dwelt there, came to Saul; and he stood and said to him, 'Brother Saul, receive your sight.' And at that same hour Saul looked up at him.

Then Ananias said, 'The God of our fathers has chosen you that you should know His will, and see the Just One, and hear the voice of His mouth. For you will be His witness to all men of what you have seen and heard” (Acts 22:12-15, NKJV).

My, my, my—and after all the terrible things Paul had done to so many Christians!

You see, we just do not know what God has always planned for the ones we think are the worst, do we?

Here is what I pray for the scoundrels and the “scoundrelettes” I read about in the newspaper and see on the television news every night:

Father: I bind _____’s will to Your will and I bind _____’s mind to the mind of Christ. I bind _____’s emotions to the healing of the Holy Spirit’s comfort and balance. I loose _____’s stronghold thinking and I loose the works of the enemy from him/her. I know that Your plans for this person are far beyond our human comprehension. Thank You, Lord, Amen.

I put myself into agreement with God’s will and trust Him to take care of all the details.

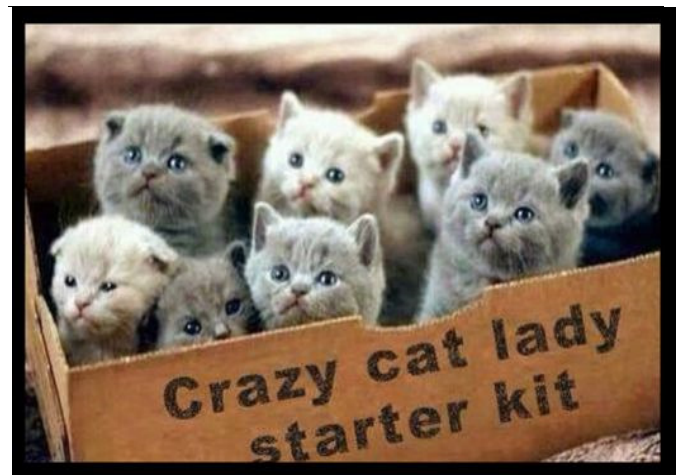

Senior Christians Who Want to Remain Vital to God’s Calling!

I want to share what I have been discovering while still writing and ministering. God does not give us a “Shelf Life” that can expire! I was 75 this year and I still have a strong desire to minister for God! In fact, sometimes I am so busy with being about His will during the day, I just fall into bed at night.

However, I do find that not having any “Shelf Life” does not mean that the Olympics are calling to see when I am coming! I have been having some problems with wonky balance, wobbly walking, and with what I call “brain bubbles” and “memory gaps.” That is okay. God and I are working on that.

Writing about this message has been very helpful to me as I am constantly forced to recognize that I sometimes fall out of being in step with parts of what I am writing about and teaching others about the Keys of the Kingdom principles. I frequently have to remind myself that ALL Christians need to KEEP personally practicing what they should be sharing with others! So, I make sure I pray the binding and loosing principles and the Word and I pray Psalm 23 and Psalm 91 out loud every night for myself and for my family members and for my cat, Callie. Someone sent me the following picture:

Now, didn’t a little chuckle about that make you feel better? That is because it released some “feel good” endorphins in you. It is okay for Super Senior Christians to chuckle, you know. The endorphin release, small as this one may have been, is especially good for your mind’s thought processes, uplifting them a little!

Here are couple of SUPER SENIOR CHRISTIAN PRAYERS that I have been putting together:

Super Senior Christians on Fire #1

Have you been afraid that you are not vital to God’s End-Time Messenger work anymore? Fiddle-dee-dee! Do you feel that “Brain Bubbles,” “Memory Gaps,” “Wonky Balance,” and “Wobbly Walking” have begun to creep up on you?

Psalm 23:3 says that God will give us new strength!

GOD never meant for any of His Super Senior Christians to fade away into old age! Do you want to get “tuned up” and then stay “tuned up” to fulfill your destiny purposes for God’s Kingdom?

Let’s pray:

Lord, I have spent years acquiring wisdom and knowledge about all kinds of things. I now need to focus on God’s wisdom and knowledge. Certain talents and traits of mine have slowed down a little.

Many of my greatest qualities have become buried under layers of fear, disappointment, and discouragement—ugly shrouds that I did not even realize the enemy has been draping over my mind, will, and emotions.

My unsundered soul even agreed to this!

I bind my will to God’s will so I can experience His encouragement! I bind my mind to the mind of Christ so I can experience His wisdom and His clarity of thinking! I bind my weak emotions to the healing and balance of the Holy Spirit. He is my Comforter! Please renew my memory. Holy Spirit.

I loose the works of the enemy trying to discourage me. I loose thought confusion, thoughts, anger, disappointment, and unforgiveness from my unsundered soul. Thank you, Lord, for always giving me Your love, comfort, strength, and guidance, Amen.

#2 SUPER SENIOR CHRISTIANS ON FIRE

If I prayed the binding and loosing prayers ten years ago and rarely since, that is like eating ten years ago and expecting to be strong today! I am ready to loose the junk in my unsundered soul—my unrenewed mind, my cantankerous will, and my sad emotions.

The promises of God do not belong only to certain age groups! Hello? I am on this Earth and still breathing for a reason! God may be the only One who knows what my end-time destiny is, but what He knows exceeds the total of whatever everyone else in the whole world thinks they know about me.

I need to clear the way for incoming messages from God about my next assignment. I will pray the binding and loosing prayers to give God permission to dig into my unsundered soul and open up all His channels. I will not just read or think about the words of this prayer, I will pray it out loud as best I can—even if I have to whisper it or pray it into my coat sleeve.

The enemy and my unsundered soul think they have me shoved into a corner of BEING TOO OLD! Soooo wrong! SUPER SENIOR CHRISTIANS are never too old for GOD! Here goes:

I bind my will to God’s will so I can experience His encouragement! I bind my mind to the mind of Christ so I can experience His wisdom and His clarity of thinking! I bind my weak emotions to the healing and balance to you, Holy Spirit, my Comforter! Please renew my memory, Holy Spirit.

I loose the works of the enemy trying to discourage me—thought confusion, sadness, anger, disappointment, and unforgiveness. Amen.

SPECIAL NOTE TO AMERICANS RE: NATIONAL ELECTIONS!

Do not keep stressing, arguing, discussing, or steaming about the condition of our upcoming elections. It creates stress in your mind and your emotions that is not good for you! Pray! As you pray, and we all should be praying, keep binding the candidates to God's will and loose all of the enemy's works off them. The best prayer you can ever pray is to align yourself with God's will. He knows everyone and everything that is involved everywhere; and He knows exactly what He needs to be done about all of it!

EXCERPT FROM NEW BOOK

I recently had some rather frightening symptoms that I tried to ignore, but failed; I know, I know, that is not MY SPIRITUAL BEST ADVICE. Anyway, I finally made an appointment to go to my doctor (an appointment that I did not cancel as I had all the previous ones). The night before my appointment, I kept struggling with my thoughts.

I always read the 23rd Psalm and the 91st Psalm aloud before I go to bed every night. My spunky little calico cat, Callie, usually comes and sits beside me on the bed as I do. Then Psalm 91:3 "told" me for about the 300th time:

"He (God) will keep you (me) safe from all hidden dangers and from all deadly diseases" (GNT...Good News Translation).

I had been reading that passage aloud for nearly two years and it had not really sunk in yet! CAN YOU BELIEVE THAT? I lifted my head and said to myself, "Well, do I really believe that or not?" I decided I did, thanked God, and went to sleep.

The next day, the doctor said I was just fine!

When you read the Word looking for comfort or assurance, ask yourself if you really believe what you are reading or are you just reading the Word because you should! Do not just tell yourself that of course you believe it because you are a good Christian! Dig deeper. Do you really believe His Word and what He says to you or not?

Your mind, will, and emotions should always be shepherded by God's powerful principles of love. God loves you and has your back! Consider the following analogy:

If something was eating away at your face (like your unsundered soul's negative, toxic emotions eats away at your insides), you would do something quickly, would you not? An "out-of-sight/out-of-mind" approach to any toxic emotions and toxic thoughts in your unsundered soul can be deadly. It is extremely important that you loose them—the sooner the better!

Pray this way (more than once is all right): Lord, I bind my will to your will. I bind my mind to the mind of Christ, and I bind my emotions to the healing comfort and balance of the Holy Spirit. I loose the works of the enemy from myself (I John 3:8, AMP) and I loose my wrong thoughts, my wrong beliefs, and any old toxic emotions that I still might be holding in my unsundered soul. Thank You, thank You, Lord, for the Keys. Amen.

EXCERPT FROM THE NEW BOOK

You cannot change the facts of your worst memories, but you can change your mind's frame of reference for those facts. The dictionary says a memory comes from your mental ability that retains and recalls a past experience. However, such a memory is not always entirely factual. Your perception of the experience that birthed the memory may be skewed.

Extremely emotional memories can be erratic and unreliable, depending upon whether the emotions invoked at the time of the experience were positive or negative and how intense they were.

You cannot loose a fact or a factual memory—but you can loose extreme any emotional responses that you have to that memory. As you continue to loose extreme emotional responses to a fact, that fact will gradually soften and recede. Do not intentionally revisit extreme memories, but do not fear them either.

Do not stumble over what is behind you—do not stumble over what is past. God has your back so keep moving forward!

Questions and Answers

QUESTION: Dear Liberty: I have been faithfully doing your prayers from SYS since 2011. My question is: My daughter wants to marry a man in September that is NOT God's will for her to marry. How do I use the prayers for "messy situations," like in this situation?"

ANSWER: Linda: Do not "do" the prayers. Pray the prayers, carefully considering each word to be a word said to God. Bind everyone who is involved in this situation to God's will. That, believe it or not, is the best prayer possible here as you do not know all the details. Also, God does not need any suggestions about what to do about them.

God cares very much about everyone involved and will work on all the details. Do not feel God has not let you down if the marriage happens. Sometimes God has to allow hard things to happen to hard heads to get their attention to make important changes in his and her futures. I have prayed. Liberty

QUESTION: Is there anything I should not bind or loose in peoples lives? I have made a list of binding and loosing things from your book, and a few others God reminded me about. I do not wish to be in error by praying the wrong thing. Thank you for your book, and I praise God for your writing it. Vicki

ANSWER: Just pray this way for yourself. This prayer has been written for the one who is concerned, but you can also insert other's names and pronouns:

Lord, I bind my mind, will, and emotions to your will and purposes for my life. I do not want my unsundered soul to be able to establish any more hiding places for its wrong beliefs and bad attitudes. I do not want my soul to be able to justify and rationalize its deception and denial any longer. I do not want my mind looking for ways to rephrase its fear and its anger. I do not want my emotions reacting like fireworks or rain clouds. I obligate my will to yours, my mind to the mind of Christ, and my emotions to the healing balance and comfort of the Holy Spirit.

I loose, smash, crush, and destroy my stronghold thinking. I tear up and tear apart all forms of defensiveness and denial in my unsundered soul. I loose, smash, crush, and destroy the wrong beliefs, wrong ideas, and misconceptions in my unsundered soul which are like rubble getting in the way of its restoration. I am sorry for not having done this sooner.

Your Word says that to repent means to think differently, to change my mind, to regret my sins, to change my conduct, and to turn and go the other way. I am choosing to do this. Thank you, Jesus, for giving me these Keys and the guidelines of the Word to help me cooperate with my healing and restoration, Amen.

QUESTION: I have been praying the binding and loosing prayers for everyone in my family. They are now seeming to come apart at the seams, exploding at me and each other. What is wrong?

ANSWER: There may have been some bad feelings bubbling below the surface that were not obvious, and were barely being contained by sheer will power. This may have origins that have been unknown to others in the family.

The binding and loosing prayers prayed for your family members seem to have revealed some issues that God can now work with. I suggest you keep praying this way:

Lord, I bind my family members wills to Your will. I bind their minds to the mind of Christ. I bind their emotions to the comforting healing and balance of the Holy Spirit. I loose all the works of the enemy from them and I loose all negative thoughts and unforgiveness from them. Amen.

Do not offer God any suggestions about how to fix any of your family members or suggest what you think He should do. Keep your prayers aimed at putting your family members in His hands. Keep loosing any effects of the enemy from them. Pray for grace and love and healing for all of them.

I have been researching information to write my first book. My Bible Class will resume in February 2017. In September, the Lord told me to have a prayer gathering using the B/L prayers to help prepare the minds of those who will be attending the class—most of whom will be my family members. I am praying for them every Monday in the prayer garden.

I have not been around this side of my family much in my adult years, so I've been taking out time since I've been living with my aunt to get to know them. Most of them already knew I was in the ministry because of being called upon to do weddings and funerals.

This is a season I cannot miss any opportunities to be a light or to witness.

Many in my family are wounded from the trauma of sexual abuse. God has ordained this time and I'm willing to be His vessel of hope, healing, and restoration to them just as He's done for me. Liberty, it has been worth it all surrendering to God's will and purpose even through it seemed like the worst of times.

Thank you so much again for your love and encouragement; the books, prayer manual, and your prayers that have HELPED(!) me along my journey since 1998 when I was led to a thrift store and found your SYS book.

Since then I have willed my soul to be bound to the mind of Christ and His will and purpose for my life. Liberty, I am the fruit of your labor that will remain. I am FOREVER GRATEFUL to God for you and your ministry. The Kings Daughter, Sylvia Hi: With so much information on your website, I do not know where to start. Where do you suggest I start?

ANSWER: So many choices can be overwhelming, can't they? I suggest you read Shattering Your Stronghold II first, then Binding and Loosing for Beginners. Feel free to write me if you want a little further direction. Pray the prayers out loud. Liberty

Dear Reverend Liberty Savard, Thank you for replying to me so quickly and thank you for sending the two prayers, Faith and Fear and Breaking Depression, which I will start praying . I have been praying the Training-Wheel Prayer for Breaking Fear and Training-Wheel Prayer for Breaking Soul Ties everyday. I share the prayers in your great books with everyone I know or meet who is in need and I encourage that they buy them so they may learn and grow and to let the healing process begin. Thank you for your faithfulness, help, prayers and understanding, you are truly anointed and gifted by Our Lord God. May Our Lord God bless you.

Dearest Liberty, With a heart of extreme thankfulness, I came across your book and started praying binding and loosing prayers for my son who has been suffering severe anxiety, fear and emotional pain since he was a little boy. He is now 34. All these years I prayed for him in other ways and there was never any change. I have been praying diligently and fervently daily for several weeks, binding and loosing prayers springing up out of my own heart for him.

My son has received a miracle and has been released from oppression, depression, negativity, suicidal thoughts, anxiety, fear, and out of control emotions. He has been set free!!!

I am realizing that I now have the spiritual weapons to pray for my daughter and three granddaughters and that I will see results instead of decades going by and seeing little or no changes. No more wasted time. Every prayer is targeted and focused and does a beautiful work of God. Thank you so very, very much for obeying the Lord long ago and letting Him give you these powerful truths and thank you for passing them on to the body of Christ. I will always be grateful to you. In His Name, Diane

Dear Liberty, Leaping to the assumption that your site was no longer active, I contacted Paypal. I'm so sorry if it caused you any hassle or trouble. I'm also sorry this was your introduction to me since I am so incredibly grateful to you. Your teaching has changed my life. I have been praying the binding and loosing prayers for years, and I have read and reread your first three books.

Each time I read one, I'm able to "hear" something I missed previously—I'm sure you understand that—and I'm so thankful for this profound teaching. I also loved the way you were genuinely humble and told so many stories on yourself. It was a gift. Thank you so much. Alison Liberty many thanks – not just for the book but for the encouragement of just knowing you as a mentor to me and then out to our whole team and as a friend. Your 'stickability' is wonderful and a motivational gift to me. I sometimes wonder if it is time to give up, but as you say that as long as I am breathing I have valuable stuff to share. Bless you – Jen and I love you so much.

Dear Liberty: I have heard so much about you from my fellow OSL group at Transformation Anglican Church in Rockwall, TX, especially from Betty Spillman and Sharon Barnett. Last week I ordered some of your charts for my husband and I to study to try and become better prayer warriors.

We praise God for His faithfulness and goodness and love for each one of us! We pray for protection for you and your employees, and deliverance from illness and healing in every area of your lives I know that God loves each one of us and He sent His only Son to die for us...so that we might become His sons and daughters! Blessings on you...and all those around you! May you prosper and be in health! In His Love, Valeria A.

Dear Liberty, Thanks for the quick response. God is so good...the book you suggested was the one that caught my eye to start reading last night. Only a few pages to start with, but I am excited about the journey. Excited and expectant to see what God will do.

Already in the last 24 hours things are changing in my daughter's life. Her pastor suggested she might like to go to a healing retreat this weekend and she will travel from where we live to Sydney. She is eager to go, and willing to drive the 2 and a half hours to our place to drop our two grandkids off. I will be reading these books avidly and putting them into practice with gusto! Caryn

Rev. Savard...Bula (greetings from FIJI). I am reading two of your books; Shattering Your Strongholds and The Unsundered Soul. I feel like you are talking to me about my problem. Everything you say is true and the need I have. It is all so real.

I believe I can do all that you are teaching, but my problem is I need a right standing person with God to petition to Him. That it is my desire, to bind everything about me to His will and to the Mind of Christ. All those whom I think I could rely on here in Fiji lack my confidence. You, Rev, on the other hand do understand my need. This is my first attempt to reach you to see if I am really reaching out to you and not somebody else on your behalf.

I need to see that this correspondence gets through to you and I would be most grateful to hear from you. I will do the losing and binding. I have worked out how to do it according to the scriptures. It is my desire to teach others as well. Please consider this request from a sinking friend.

LIBERTY: You have reached Liberty in person. Your "right standing" with God is in place—you accepted Christ as your Savior and became part of God's family. The binding and loosing principles are solid—you need to be praying the binding and loosing prayers in both books that you have. Let me know how you are doing.

I want to thank you so very much for your book, Shattering Your Stronghold. It has been such a blessing not only to me, but to our entire congregation who purchased a book. We thank you for allowing God to use you in such a way that has impacted so many lives. Thank you again, Barbara

You are like a Moses, baby girl. You are favored and know all of God's people are favored if they put their faith in the giver of Life. No one can touch a heart like Jesus does. You are a treasure to Him and He is using you regardless of what is going on around you. You thrive—not survive. You are never alone. God has put many in place to pray for you when you are in a vulnerable state. Humans do have those days on occasion but God has made provision.

This you have experienced over and over and over through the years. I felt impressed to remind you of all the family you have all over the world who love you so much. They read your books, look on your website, go to conferences, or special engagements. Speakers, pastors, and leaders teach what they have learned from what the Holy Spirit taught you.

God also uses people one-on-one to give the Keys (that He has shown you) to each other. Thus the multitudes step into freedom through the Biblical truth you teach. You will probably never meet them but they are connected to you as a sister in Christ, leader, teacher, and you are prophetic among other gifts and talents. The bond is God given to release every generation for ministry. You are all about Jesus and His Word changing lives and advancing the Kingdom of God. You are all about His power, His wisdom, His anointing, His provision, His healing, His love and on and on. This brings fruit.

You have a sound mind. The truth is in you. It does not matter if you forget something here and there in the natural. It gives you more of an understanding of how to keep every generation in the posture of being used of God. It helps you keep their hearts right and always trusting Jesus. (Yahoo! I really like that, Liberty)

The body is from cradle to grave, every nation

every tribe. God can and will use anyone who says, “Here I am, Lord, use me.” God is with you, He is not finished with you. There is a prejudice against older people. But, shine on, you have Keys. Love you in Christ, Barbara

PRAYING FOR THE CHILDREN

There are so many children around the world who are in situations of all forms of abuse, hunger, sickness, homelessness, poverty, war, and even child slavery. I pray that strong adults can also bring help to them with their prayers. Second Chronicles 7:14 tells us:

If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land (NKJV).

Some of our wicked ways are that we do not pray enough for those who need God’s help so much. This speaks of the power of our prayers for other nations and those in them if we will humble ourselves, stop following our own wills and our own agendas, and pray with all the focus and determination that we can for what is right.

What might be considered another one of our wicked ways as spoken of here? Could it not be that we have not cried out for others, especially the children of the world, everywhere, every day! Please join with me and others in praying for the children of the world who desperately need us to agree that God’s will shall be done in their lives and quickly.

Lord, I come to your with pain in my heart asking that you forgive me for not daily remembering and praying for those who cannot help themselves. I bind every child in the world to Your will. I bind their minds to Your mind, Jesus, and I bind their wounded and ragged emotions to the healing balance and comfort of the Holy Spirit. Please speak words of encouragement and hope to them. Please send angels and human help to rescue them quickly.

I loose the enemy’s influence from all adults who are using and abusing so many children in the world today. Please heal them from whatever has driven them to such behaviors. People are not born knowing how to abuse; they learn from being abused themselves. Please break this evil cycle in their lives.

I loose, smash, crush, and destroy the enemy’s works that are coming against these children. You have said if we would humble ourselves, pray, seek Your face, and turn from our wicked ways, then You would heal our land. Please show us all that we need to do to work with You to see our lands and the children in them become safe and healed and filled with hope. Thank you, Lord, Amen

Always remember:

James 4:17 (NIV)

Anyone, then, who knows the good he ought to do and doesn’t do it, sins.

Who and What is LIBERTY SAVARD MINISTRIES?

Reverend Liberty S. Savard, President of Liberty Savard Ministries, Inc. (a non-profit corporation), was spiritually born again in 1972. She is an ordained minister with credentials from the Evangelical Church Alliance (P.O. Box 9, Bradley, Illinois 60915). Rev. Savard has served as a singles director, associate pastor, speaker, and Bible teacher. She is the author of Shattering Your Strongholds II and Shattering Your Strongholds Workbook II, Breaking the Power II and Breaking the Power II Workbook, Producing the Promise II, and several mini-books. Her books also include The Unsundered Soul II, BEYOND Shattered Strongholds II, GOD'S GPS for the Soul II, The Binding and Loosing Prayer Manual (LSS Publishing, 2009), Binding and Loosing for Beginners (LSS Publishing 2010),. The KEYS TO UNDERSTANDING set of 4 books (LSS Pub.) and GOD'S GPS II COMPANION/DISCUSSION Book (LSS Publishing 2016).

This ministry believes the Scriptures are inspired of God, infallible, and fully authoritative for Christian faith and conduct. Jesus Christ, the Son of God, was born of a virgin, lived a sinless life on Earth, died on the cross in a substitutionary work of redemption for mankind, rose again and now sits at the right hand of the Father. Through Christ's shed blood and renewal of the Holy Ghost, justified by grace through faith, man becomes an heir of God with absolute hope of eternal life.

Liberty teaches Christians how to cause their unsundered souls (old natures) to surrender to the will and purposes of God. She also teaches Christians how to loose emotional baggage and toxic waste from their souls to create room within themselves to receive all God has promised to them for today. This allows believers to fulfill their destinies while walking in knowledge and power to bring glory and honor to God the Father! The message of binding and loosing and the Unsundered Soul teaches God's people how to pray with the Keys of the Kingdom (Matthew 16:19) to impact things on earth so they come into alignment with God's already established will in Heaven. Liberty also teaches Christians how to pray purely without "want lists" and/or soulish instruction manuals for God (so He will know how best to answer their prayers!). Effective prayers with pure motives declare that God's will shall be done on Earth as He has so set it in Heaven.
